

Building cultural platforms to assist China– Australia economic developments

ACCeCo builds the friendly exchanges and cooperation between Australian and going to launch a series of activities

Jie Cheng (ACCeCo President), Graham Quirk (Lord Mayor of Brisbane), Adrian Schrinner (Councilor for Chandler Ward), Steven Huang (Brisbane City Council representative) and Potent Mechanical & Industrial (Xiamen) representatives

ACCeCo builds a business platform

On August 8, Australia-China Chamber of Ceo Inc. (ACCeCo) brought their business delegations to attend the infrastructure seminar held by the Brisbane City Council. These business delegations including: Australia Easylife International, Australia Culture Industry Group and other Chinese delegations.

Education: Australia and China cooperation

On June 18 2013, The Australia Culture Industry Group, The Royal Brisbane Institute of Technology and Open Distance Education Centre have signed international education cooperation projects between China and Australia witnessed by the Queensland's Minister for Education, Training and Employment – John Langbroek at Starwood Hotels & Resorts (Shanghai).

Potent Mechanical & Industrial Co. Ltd., Open Distance Education Centre and Huludao Goldin Investment Group flew to Queensland for investigations and sought for development projects in June. Open Distance Education Centre is one of the leading distance learning institutions in China. Both Potent and Goldin Group work for different areas, for example mining industry, mining equipment & machineries, real estates, education and etc.

In early August, the ACCeCo's delegations went to investigate different Queensland education institutions including: Southern Cross University, Royal Brisbane Institute of Technology, Queensland International Business Academy, King's Christian College, Gold Coast Technical and Further Education (GC TAFE) and some government schools, e.g. Varsity College.

Mining and Real Estate: Friendly exchange

After the event, both Huludao Goldin Group and Potent Mechanical have developed their new projects with Australian companies. Also, another ACCeCo member– Ray White (Surfers) will be held an Australia property investment seminar in Beijing and Dailin on 21-25 August to enhance investment opportunities between China and Australia.

Cultural Exchange: Enhancing cohesion and harmony among different ethnics

Gold Coast City Council, Gold Coast Chinese Club and Gold Coast China Town will be held The Dragon Boat Festival & Chinese Festival Gala at Southport Broadwater Parklands on October 6, 2013. By then, the Chinese delegations will be participated and Holiday International Golden travel will responsible for the reception. This event will enhance harmony among different ethnics and strengthen the positive relations among the community.

Left to right: Michelle Lee (CEO of RBIT), Jie Cheng (ACCeCo President) and other collaborators

Recently, ACCeCo has built a friendly connections between China and Australia. A set of projects will be launched in Queensland including: urban infrastructure development, industrial construction, education, property investments, mining, cultural exchange and etc. Also, ACCeCo follows their motto which are "Exchange, Cooperation, Development, Community and Not-for-Profit".

Jie Cheng (ACCeCo President) and Graham Quirk (Lord Mayor of Brisbane)

Jie Cheng (ACCeCo President) and Graham Quirk (Lord Mayor of Brisbane)

Left to right: Liu Jin Biao (CEO of Goldin Group), Jie Cheng (ACCeCo President) and Huang Gui Zhou (Vice President of Open Distance Education Centre)

Jie Cheng (ACCeCo President) and Nicholas Monsour (Monster Solutions)

Left to right: Sally Chung (ACCeCo Vice President), Brendon Blakemore (King's Christian College Vice Chairman) and Rees Davis (King's Principal)

Left to right: Vicky Yu (CEO of Australia Culture Industry Group), Graham Quirk (Lord Mayor of Brisbane) and Steven Huang (Brisbane City Council representative)